Re: Outstanding Reviewer Award

Dear Dr. Glover,

We are writing to let you know of the outstanding service of one of your faculty members. Dr. Stephanie Evans will be honored at the American Educational Research Association 's annual meeting in New York as one of the top 10 reviewers of the American Educational Research Journal/Social and Institutional Analysis for 2007. We hope you can join us for this event. It will be held Monday evening, March 24, from 6:15-7:45 in Building/Room: Hilton New York / Rendezvous Trianon, 3rd floor.

Dr. Evans has gone far beyond any expectations of an academic journal reviewer. While most of us complete one or two reviewers a year, she completed many more. Sometimes we called on Dr. Evans at a moment's notice – needing her professional opinion on a manuscript with a tight publication deadline. She was always willing. Her reviews were not only timely, but prepared with a deep understanding of the field of research, and a compassionate voice. Even if the recommendation was to reject for publication, she gave such carefully constructed criticism that I often have authors write to thank us.

Please know, that without Dr. Evan's professional service – and a few others like her, AERJ would not be the flagship journal it is today.

Sincerely,

Sandra Hollingsworth and Margaret A. Gallego
Co-editors for AERJ/SIA
